

RESCUE PARTY OFF FOR WEST COAST MONDAY

Transport Buford Will Sail
from San Francisco and
Will Go as Far as
Salina Cruz

WILL PICK UP ALL YANKEE REFUGEES

It Will Be Necessary to Put Searching Parties
Ashore at Some of Points Touched

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The first specific appeal to the transport Buford, on her trip for west coast Mexican ports, beginning Monday noon, was received here today from Paul F. Carpenter, of Los Angeles. He asks that a search party be sent for George Carpenter, American civil engineer in charge of the irrigation work at Topolamp, who was last heard from three weeks ago at Guaya, twenty miles inland from Topolamp. At that time George Carpenter sent word that his camp had been attacked and swept clean of everything portable, including firearms.

Need Searching Parties
The probability is that there will be need of other inland searching parties and rescue expeditions, which makes the officers here anxious that the Buford should carry a hundred or more armed men, as well as provisions and full hospital equipment. No such orders have been received. San Diego will be the Buford's first California coast stop, and Topolamp, the first Mexican stop, while Salina Cruz will be the last and southernmost. At San Diego Claude F. Guyant, agent of the state department, will be taken aboard. At each port of call the Buford will receive orders where to make the next stop. The itinerary thus is tentative, but as at present laid down, follows in order the ports named: San Diego, Topolamp, Altata, Maratlan, San Blas, Teric, Manzanillo, Anapico, Salina Cruz and then home. At Topolamp, 250 United States citizens are awaiting her.

Work is Rushed
Work on the Buford is being rushed at top speed. She was out of commission when called on for duty. Her crew will be made up from officers and crews of the transports Sherman and Sheridan, both having recently arrived from Manila. Taking on 1,600 tons of coal, sufficient for forty days' steaming, it is estimated her trip will take about six weeks. Two wireless operators will be carried. The transport Crook is also being fitted for possible duty, and is being equipped with wireless.

ROOSEVELT TALKS TO BOSTON CROWD

Failed to Abuse Taft as
He Has Been Doing
Last Few Nights

BOSTON, April 27.—Boston gave Roosevelt tonight a demonstrative welcome. In the arena before a tumultuous throng, the former president again criticized Taft. He did not repeat, however, the severe denunciation which marked his speech in Worcester last night. "I do not wish this to be a campaign of personalities between Taft and myself," said Col. Roosevelt. "Last night I felt compelled to refer to Taft at length, tonight I shall refer to him only as I feel I must."

Mackay-Bennett Is Due to Reach Port Sunday or Early Monday

HALIFAX, April 27.—The Mackay-Bennett is due late Sunday or early Monday with the bodies of Astor, Straus and other victims of the Titanic, recovered from the sea. Blank certificates, reading "accidental death," are prepared for the action of the coroner's jury, to be filled with the names of the dead as soon as ascertained. Only relatives of the Titanic victims will be allowed on the docks or in the morgues, where the coffins will be opened. The unidentified will be buried in cemeteries here.

DECLARES COAL AS CONTRABAND

Madero Ordered Railroad
Managers to Quit Hauling it—Will Hurt
The Rebels

OROZCO GETS MONEY

EL PASO, April 27.—An order declaring coal a contraband of war which may seriously affect all industries in northern Mexico was issued by President Madero today. The order, served on General Manager Ferris of the Mexico Northwestern railway, demands that the railroad decline to handle "a single lump." It is understood the Mexico Northwestern is now the only line operating through Chihuahua which has a terminus at El Paso. The Mexican coast is under rebel control and its northern terminus is in Juarez. Most of the coal brought in for use of the smelters and other industries is said to have fallen into the hands of the rebels who have used it to run trains. It is said that many of the largest industries in the state of Chihuahua will have to close within two weeks if fuel is not forthcoming.

The waning treasury of the rebels is to be replenished by $220,000 in gold by arrangements between General Luis Terrazas and Orozco. Forty-four thousand head of Terrazas cattle have been sold to Americans who agreed to pay Orozco $5 per head as tax.

PRESIDENT KNOCKED GOLF BALLS AROUND

Laid Politics Aside and Enjoyed Himself
for a While

NEWARK, April 27.—President Taft laid aside politics today and donning his old gray cap and sweater he relieved his feelings on the golf ball around the course. The president played with Ogden Colgate, of New York. Out of respect for the president's feelings, there was no "gallery" following in his wake. Taft will leave Washington Sunday night for Massachusetts to continue his campaign before the presidential primaries which will be held there Tuesday.

DECIDED TO WAIT FOR CONVENTION

Temporary Organization of Democrat Convention
Was Discussed

BALTIMORE, April 27.—The question of the temporary organization of the national democratic convention here next June was brought up in a meeting of the sub-committee of the national democratic committee on arrangements today, but was dropped when Chairman Mack argued any attempt by the committee to organize the convention might be construed as an attempt to influence the convention in favor of one candidate. Col. J. T. McGraw, of West Virginia, brought up the question. He proposed the selection of United States Senator Ogorman, of New York, as temporary chairman and Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, as temporary secretary, and Col. J. I. Martin, of Missouri, now sergeant-at-arms of the national committee, as sergeant-at-arms of the convention.

Mount Temple Captain Said
Titanic Was Running
Too Fast Through
Ice Field

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Failure to give her exact position in the great field of floating ice that offered a rigid barrier to ships hurrying to the rescue, and the mistake of her captain in rushing at top speed through the ice covered sea, combined to send the Titanic and her 1,600 victims to their watery grave in the North Atlantic, according to testimony today before the senate committee investigating the ocean tragedy, by Captain James H. Moore, of the steamer Mount Temple, which was hurried to the Titanic in response to wireless calls for help. He told of the great stretch of field ice, which held him off. Within his view from the bridge, he said, he discerned another strange steamer, probably a "tramp" schooner, which was making its way out of the ice. The lights of this schooner, he thought, probably were those seen by anxious survivors of the Titanic, which they frantically tried to reach.

Running too Fast
Captain Moore denounced as "most unwise" the action of the Titanic's commander in rushing at a speed of twenty-one knots through the night when he had been advised of the proximity of the ice. The Mount Temple's commander testified he had spent twenty-seven years in the North Atlantic. Whenever ice was about, he said, he doubled his watch and reduced speed; if he happened to get caught in an ice pack, he stopped his engines and drifted until clear. The witness also was emphatic in his declaration that the position sent out by the Titanic was wrong. He said the ship was eight miles further eastward than its operators reported. This, he declared, he proved by observations taken the first thing the day following the disaster, with what was

CULIACAN IS NOW IN RUINS

Federals Have Won Decisive
Victory and Captured
Guns—Two Rebel
Leaders Shot

TRAINS ARE RUNNING

TUCSON, April 27.—Culiacan is virtually ruined and Tepic badly battered. The west coast of Mexico is reported at the offices of the Espase of Mexico, 25 feet from warfare for the first time in several weeks. Tepic could not be heard from, the wires having been cut at Presidio. Advice from Mazatlan confirm early reports that Morales and Guzmán, rebel leaders in the assault on Tepic, were wounded badly. The federal victory at Tepic was rendered complete Thursday evening when the rebels withdrew, ending a battle of nearly 48 hours. The rebel loss, while not given in figures, is stated to have been considerable. The federals succeeded in capturing the two ranches which the rebels had used during the siege. Both the Southern Pacific of Mexico station and battery room were fired on by these cannons, but the operator, stuck to his post until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when he felt compelled to seek his own safety by withdrawing. Reports today state he has not yet returned to his station. All reports state that the defeat of the rebels was decisive.

THAW MAKES THIRD EFFORT FOR FREEDOM

His Attorneys Have Prepared New Writ of Habeas Corpus

EXPECT LONG DELAY

MATTEWAN, April 27.—Harry K. Thaw left here today and appeared before Judge Keogh, at New Rochelle, in the fourth attempt to gain his freedom. His lawyers have prepared a new writ of habeas corpus. Thaw expressed confidence that he will be released soon. A long delay is predicted, however, to give the state attorneys time to examine the voluminous report.

NEW YORK, April 27.—All metal markets quiet and nominal, as usual Saturday, owing to absence of cables.

EXTRA SESSION OF LEGISLATURE NOT NECESSARY

Amendment to Medical Law

Introduced

BISBEE REVIEW BUREAU, ROOM 5, Western Union Building, Phoenix, April 27.—It is now practically agreed that no extra session of the legislature will be held. If more time is needed than remains until the sixty days from convening has elapsed, the clocks will be stopped and sessions will work a week or ten days over the last day dating all of their business May 15. That some extra time will be necessary to finish up the work already under way there is no doubt. To make the extra time as short as possible beginning Monday night in both branches, night sessions will be held. Although not completed the work of today's session was small and many matters were passed along to their way towards final enactment. Both houses were in committee of the whole most of the day and the senate considered bill to license peddlers, for a military code and dry farming. From the military bill the appropriation has been eliminated, the general appropriation measure carrying for the expense of soldiers. In its present form it was recommended for passage and the dry farming experiment bill was agreed to. There was a long drawn out argument over the peddlers license bill.

Prohibition Measure.
A tense moment was created when Senator Pace, of Graham county, a well known prohibition advocate, asked permission to introduce a bill which he said would materially effect the sale of liquor in the state. Every one who heard this statement expected to hear read a state prohibition bill and one could have heard a pin drop so still was the senate chamber, but when Secretary Cronin read the bill it was found to be a measure aimed at irregular selling of

FEARS INTERVENTION

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Paving the way for a more formal demand for recognition by the United States of the belligerency of the Mexican revolutionists, Manuel Lujan, one of the junta representing Orozco now in Washington, submitted to the state department today a signed copy of a proclamation issued by their leader. It is addressed: "On behalf of the revolutionary party to all of the people in Mexico and its foreign colonies."

In this pronouncement Orozco declares the objects of his party to be a complete return of Mexican principles and the establishment of law and order which the Madero government failed to achieve. Stress is laid upon the charge that at present the lives and property of Mexicans as well as foreigners are in jeopardy; that through acts of violence Mexico has lost the moral and financial prestige and provoked the determination on the part of the United States and other foreign countries to forcibly intervene in behalf of their citizens residing in our midst for the purpose of protecting their lives and property. Orozco points to the vast amount of foreign capital invested in Mexico which he pledges himself to protect as well as to stop bloodshed and disorder. He declares: "We do not want intervention; we must not have intervention. The idea of intervention on the part of any foreign government is appalling."

He refers with pride to the present conditions in the state of Chihuahua, which promise soon to prevail in the newly acquired territory of Sinaloa. He condemns the destruction of property, looting the treasury and says it is provocation of international differences. The conduct of Madero is said by Orozco to demonstrate his weakness of character and his willingness to antagonize well-meaning people of the republic. "He should therefore be turned out at the earliest possible moment," continued the proclamation.

EZCOBOZO HAS BEEN CAPTURED, IS REPORT

May Be Mere Rumor—S. P.
Repairs Bridge Below Empalme

CANANEA, Son., Mex., April 27.—A report has been received here to the effect that Isidro Ezcoboza, leader of a small band of rebels, has been captured and made a prisoner. The report cannot be verified.

The Southern Pacific of Mexico railroad has repaired the bridge that was recently burned a short distance north of Oroz, below Empalme. The repair crew was accompanied by a strong guard of soldiers. The railroad is making an effort to continue the service between Empalme and San Blas, and a guard of soldiers has been placed along the railroad. The soldiers will patrol the tracks the entire distance, especially in places where the Yaquis have been molesting them. The first train run south since the bridge was burned was run on Thursday morning to San Blas. Three hundred Yaquis have occupied Bacum, according to a report.

MORE INTEREST IN PRIMARIES THAN EXPECTED

Spirited Contest for Democratic Nomination for Marshal Won by
J. F. McDonald

WATKINS SECURED MOST REPUB. VOTES

Sam Briscoe and Lorenzo
Wright Nominated by Their Parties—
Count Was Late

In the most spirited contests in the city primary yesterday, J. F. McDonald, present street supervisor of the democratic administration, won the nomination for city marshal in a field of four candidates; Sam Briscoe won the democratic nomination for street supervisor by nearly double the vote given his democratic opponent; Bassett Watkins had a walk-away for the republican nomination for city marshal, and Lorenzo Wright defeated his republican opponent more than two to one for the republican nomination for street supervisor. Martin Butler defeated Frank Neil nearly two to one for the republican nomination for city clerk.

That is a summarization of results in contests in which there was any interest in the primary. The socialists registered only a slight vote, as was expected. J. L. Brooks led the ticket with 26 votes, and for other offices the number of votes received by socialist candidates ranged downward to 1. For precinct committeemen in the second ward, J. Greer and G. T. Thatcher tied with one vote each. The party is allotted one committeeman in each ward.

The principal interest in the primary was the contest for the democratic nomination for city marshal. It was not until the count of the first ward was completed, at ten o'clock last night, that it was known definitely who would represent the democrats for this office in the election. The first ward count was completed at 7 o'clock, and the second at 8:30 o'clock. On the count of these two wards, McDonald was only eight votes ahead of Benton, but in the first ward he nearly doubled the vote of Benton, and the final count gave him a majority over Benton of 52. Joiner was not in the running and Wilmoth was not a strong contender, receiving 99 votes.

The vote of the three wards totaled for each candidate was as follows:

For Mayor
M. Newman, democrat, 279; John S. Williams, republican, 243; J. L. Brooks, socialist, 26.
For City Marshal
J. F. McDonald, democrat, 216; Cass Benton, democrat, 158; Jay Wilmoth, democrat, 99; D. J. Joiner, democrat, 27.
Bassett Watkins, republican, 27; Chas. Sayrol, republican, 30.
K. C. McCutcheon, socialist, 25.
For City Clerk
P. H. Fitzpatrick, democrat, 406; Martin Butler, republican, 179; Frank Neil, republican, 98; E. W. Hogg, socialist, 25.

Second Ward (Two)
H. S. Hillman, democrat, 67; Walter Thomas, democrat, 77; John T. Quick, republican, 59; Leonard Warmington, republican, 32; B. Blunt, socialist, 4; Edgar Clayton, socialist, 5.
